

6516206271.txt

Please refrain from regulating satellite radio. It is a service just like cable TV and satellite TV. We as a consumer pay for this service to a private company. The material is not public therefore it should not be regulated by any form of government. It angers me to think that this is even an issue. Please quash all demands from a biased interest group and make your decision based upon a true understanding of the law.
Thank you

Drew Clements